FROM : Information Control, OSC
COUNTRY : Yugoslavia
SUBJECT : Report on Lieutenant Adamic
DATE OF INFORMATION: June 1947

1. This office has received a report that fifty American and English are being held prisoner in the prison of Zabela (?) near Posarevac in Serbia. One of the prisoners is a First Lieutenant Adamic of the United States Army Air Forces, said to be the 24 year old son of Louis Adamic, the author.
2. Lieutenant Adamic was forced down in March 1946 while flying over Croatia. He lost his left arm in the crash and burned two fingers of his right hand. After his recovery in a military hospital, he was arrested and in January 1947 was reported to be in Belgrade in a prison located on Deligradska Street. During February he was transferred to Zabela prison and was there in June 1947.
3. The report adds that he is transferred from one prison to another because "the Americans are searching for him".
4. Inasmuch as this office doubts the fact that Adamic has a son in the Army, it would strengthen the report if the reliability of this information could be checked with the list of missing Americans in Yugoslavia.
